Tie-Break Procedures

A. TWO TEAM TIE- head to head

B. If the tie cannot be decided head to head, the two teams will have a one-match playoff game at a neutral site or a district opponent's site decided upon by the two competing schools. The outcome will determine who the district representatives are in the playoffs.

C. THREE TEAM TIE- head to head.

D. If the tie cannot be decided head to head, the three teams will have a mini-tournament. A coin flip will determine the odd team (all three teams flip, odd man out gets bye), with that team drawing a first game bye in the playoff. The other two teams will play a game with the winner in the second game. The team that lost the first game and the team that had the bye will then play. If the team that lost the first game loses the second game, then they are out. If the winner of the second game is the team with the bye they play winner of game one. If loser of game one wins second game, winner of first game is the number one seed and winner of second game is second seed. Team with bye is out.

E. FOUR TEAM TIE- (Draw 1vs2, 3vs4) the two winners of the first two games will play each other for the right to proceed as the number one or number two seed into the playoffs. The losers of the first two games will play for the third place slot. The playoff tournament will be played at a district opposite site. If no district gym is available then the two coaches must agree on a neutral site.

F. OUTRIGHT CHAMPION AND A TIE FOR SECOND PLACE OR THIRD PLACE- The same methods as stated in A,C, and E will be used to determine the second and third place teams for the state playoffs.

G. In a mutual consent situation, a coin flip could determine seeding for playoff games. If a coin is flipped the winner will take the number one seed in the playoffs.

H. On a consecutive season tie between two teams where a home/home playoff site is used, the game would switch sites the next year.

19. A game ball of top quality will be provided by home team. (White or 3-panel colored). The host team will also provide practice balls, a ball cart, cups/water bottles, and water for visiting team.

20. Each team will provide one adult or student to call lines for District match.
